I would rather have high quality interpreters than the choice of not having to wait for an interpreter or the availability of calling 24 hours a day. I also appreciate the work Sorenson has done to improve their technology, and I would not like to see interoperability requirements so that Sorenson can continue to improve.

Thank you for considering my comments.